Dear Mrs. Bullowa:

When I was in New York a week ago Mr. Breen indicated that you had some counterfeit halfpence and I collect those among other colonial coins. I am interested in only British halfpence with dates from 1776 through 1788 but also those of George II and George III earlier than 1775. Would you be kind enough to send me, on approval, any which you may care to sell or send me, for examination, any of those which you do not wish to sell.

Among other things I am writing a paper on the subject of them and would like to know of all the die varieties which I can readily find.

Sincerely yours,

ERIC P. NEWMAN

Dear Madam:

When I visited Philadelphia a few days ago I was very pleased to make your acquaintance and am sorry that work interfered with the pleasure of my looking at further items you have for sale.

When I came home I checked the items which I bought and you indicated I could return them if I had them. I found that I had the two Rhode Island pieces which were priced at $5.00 and $4.00, respectively, and the South Carolina £50, the price of which I do not remember. I find that there was a 12 shillings 6 pence Virginia piece which I did not have but which I passed up; however, if you would be nice enough to send me on approval the group of Virginia pieces which you have I am sure I can find more than enough to substitute for those I am returning and buy others.

You will recall that I took a £100 note of South Carolina and it was in pretty terrible condition. Would you send me the other two of that same denomination and let me work on them to see which one is best? I will return two of the three and can assure you they will all be highly improved.

As to buying all of the Colonial paper money, I was wondering approximately how many pieces there are in the group as I have a thought as to how I might be able to handle the entire group.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

ERIC P. NEWMAN

Dear Mr. Newman:

The enclosed check is for the items which you returned.

With regard to all the Colonial Paper Money, I cannot count it, but there are probably 1,000 pieces in the group. However, I did offer this group as a whole to another person, and I will not break it up further. What I did for you, that day, was SPECIAL, thus no other notes can be sent out,

Regret I cannot send the S. Carolina notes to you, nor the Virginia pieces, due to my commitments at this time.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Catherine:

I am enclosing a reprint of my last article because it relates to Philadelphia and to subjects close to your heart.

I believe that you had some sort of duplicates made of the plates in the Jenks Catalog and I would appreciate it, so much, if I could have a set.

I enjoyed the convention tremendously and even though my plane was struck by lightning, at least I have an excuse for anything nutty I do from now on.

Kindest personal regards.

Dear Eric:

Many, many thanks for your thoughts of me. I am so happy to have your reprint as I felt the Coin World's copy of mine would soon disintegrate.

As to the duplicate plates in the Jenks Catalogue, I do not have any right now. I believe mine were duplicates from Bebee, but they were not good, really. I have no idea where they are. Try writing to Bebee and see if he has them. Sorry I cannot be of help to you with this.

With very kind regards. As for doing "nutty" things, don't we all? Too much on our minds, and everything done in HASTE - even this little note to you, but wanted to answer quickly since you may have to write elsewhere.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Newman: (Eric)

Have just come across an old N.Y. Times of March 26, 1835. It contains one article entitled LAWS OF THE U.S. *PASSED AT THE SECOND SESSION OF THE TWENTY*THIRD CONGRESS. An Act to establish branches of the Mint of the United States at--New Orleans for the coinage of gold and silver--one branch at Charlotte, N. C. for the coinage of gold only--one branch at or near Dahlonega, Ga., also for the coinage of gold only.

For this newspaper we would like Post Paid $7.50 Thought it might be of interest to you knowing the work you have done on the subject.

Best wishes and looking forward to hearing from you either way.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Catherine:

Thank you for offering the Branch Mint Laws as published in the New York Times in 1835.

I have the full laws relating to coinage in my library and therefore cannot take advantage of your kindness. I just haven't room to collect collateral material unless it is of critical importance.

Thank you, so much, for thinking of me.

Dear Eric,

Just to say I had just put the letter to you down our mail chute, when your letter with $1.00 arrived. Many thanks.

We figured you were trying the "new math" system and not getting an A in it!

I am using the weight at tip end of Allender scale and upside down as seems to do best that way. Not so sure I am supposed to do that BUT I do thank you heartily for the gift.

Dear Cathy:

As you astutely observed, the intended word UNIT in the Andreits 1804 dollar illustration in my article in the October 1990 NUMISMATIST is misspelled UNTT. I suggest you write a letter to the editor calling this curiosity to the attention of other readers. The edge lettering on whatever U.S. Dollar was used by the illustrator must have been difficult to read.

It is interesting that the 1840 panel copying the Andreits illustration of the 1804 dollar correctly spelled the word UNIT.

UNTT I thank you RUNDRED times for calling this to my attention.

Dear Cathy & Earl:

Your beautiful holiday greetings are much appreciated and I am sorry Earl is having such a rough time.

We are spending much of our time at the Butterfly House which Evelyn just developed and opened in a public park. We have had 60,000 paid admissions in the first 60 days so it is a tremendous success. I have to share time between it and coin research. The Park built a small lake in front of the butterfly house and someone gave us two swans for it. I am the swan keeper and abruptly have had to learn how to take care of them or how to help them take care of themselves.

The ANS is getting pretty much of my attention and I feel very pleased at the progress. I am sure you feel the same way. You have always been so convincing as to needed changes. We have a chance to make it a mightier institution. I am hopeful I can spend less time on cent recovery and editing matters as this has been a necessary ordeal for me and for ANS.

I certainly wish I had known David Bullowa more than just casually. We need more people like him. The lecture series in his name is just a small recognition of his impact.

May both of you have a good holiday,

Eric P. Newman

Kathy Bullock Moore telephoned me and asked if I would authenticate a ^{Mass} ~~British~~ shilling. She said it was in a small dealer's possession & looks good to her. She said she would send it by Fed Ex. She offered me reimbursement and a fee. I said I do not accept fees but would try to be of help.

I then asked who the dealer was & she was hesitant but said the coin was found with other coins in Falmouth, Maine. ^(not Falmouth, Mass) She said she would tell me who the dealer was but I would not know him. She said the coin has a hole in it. I asked how near the edge it was & she said near the top. I did not ask her to send images of it but will do so later.
